Customer Reviews

This new edition has more stories and photos and makes for a fine coffee table addition to any surfer's collection. . . . Lopez creates a space for the people around him to feel good. He takes the time to reflect on what surfing has brought him in life and reminds us to take the time to do the same. Santa Cruz Sentinel Gerry Lopez writes as beautifully as he bottom turns. Each chapter of Surf Is Where You Find It is a wave ridden or written by one of the most stylish humans to ever pick up a board or a pen. Gerry has been one of my heroes since I was a keiki and the more time I have spent with him the more my admiration of him has grown. Whether he is talking about memories of growing up bare foot during the sugar cane days of Hawai'i, wild experiences with some of the greatest characters in surfing's history, or early uncharted expeditions to the best waves in the world, every story has something the reader can take away and apply to their own life. Reading Surf Is Where You Find It made me feel proud to be a surfer again. I hope anyone who loves the ocean will read this book and be reminded of what riding waves is all about. -- Jack Johnson

There will never be another Gerry Lopez, nor a more mandatory book to have on your shelf than Surf Is Where You Find It. -- Eastern Surf Reviews --This text refers to the Hardcover edition.

The book is 5 stars - the Kindle Edition is 1 star. If you buy the Kindle version - you are getting a fraction of an excellent book that lacks all the chapters and many, many of the amazing pictures in the book. I first bought the kindle version, loved it and then bought the book as a gift for a friend and I was shocked looking at the book at what is NOT IN THE KINDLE Version. Huh?I am not a surfer but a climber but loved the stories in the book.If is going to sell a Kindle version - they need to be upfront and tell the buyer what they are not getting compared to the original book form.

This is a book written by a surfer for surfers and anyone else that has ever been to the beach and seen someone ride a surfboard and said how do they do that? The writer is not only a talented world class surfer, an actor, but also an author of this and other books. Gerry Lopez tells his story in true Hawaiian, "talk story", style. Each chapter is a new adventure and some that take you to waves that he discovered or was just discovering with some of his friends who are listed in the Who's Who list of the best surfers in the world. Pick up the book I guarantee you won't put it down. Gerry, if you read this, I'm a year younger than you and still surf and reading this book makes me want to go out and surf with a young heart and passion everyday. I hope you have more stories to tell and a new book is on the horizon. Thanks for telling us your history through your stories.

Amazing. Exceeded my expectations...which were high to begin with. GL delivered more detailed stories than I thought possible, and his writing style is well-honed. Great read for land lovers too.

Good historical backdrop book that is interesting for the surf community. Covers a lot of ground and well worth the read. Good on ya Gerry! Living legend.

Really enjoyed this book! Loved the history of Gerry growing up in Hawaii and I also really appreciate his approach to life. Surfers will love this book but it's a great read for anybody!

Outstanding collection of stories and recollections from the life and pen of Gerry Lopez.

A great surfer who willingly writes about his experiences with truthful insights and lessons learned. He has 'Surf Realization' !

Took me back to the good old days...I'm going to start walking barefoot again.
