A really lovely depiction of the gospel which is available to all, even those different than you. Beautiful illustrations. My little one loves looking at the pictures and I'm looking forward to the message making its way to her heart as we continue to read it.

What a beautiful little book! It tells the story of Jesus' love for all peoples. I bought several to give away.

I received an advanced copy, and it is such a gorgeous book with a beautiful message. My son loved the illustrations, and I loved the diversity of faces inside. The book is a wonderful depiction of the gospel, as well as the good and God-given diversity of people in this world. It's a such a terrific book for kids!
