Gaelle Graham studied at La Sorbonne where she obtained a licence-es-lettres. She also has an MA in linguistics from the University of Kent. She has more than 25 years of experience teaching French in secondary schools and as a teacher trainer.

This is a great course for learning French. All the negative reviews are for the kindle edition.

This is a good product that combines listening, speaking, reading, and writing. I do wish that the cd had pauses for me to answer.

I love teachyourself best product ever!

I’m using this book with the app,I’m really learning french with both.I checked out a few french apps ,this one seems to be effective though I’m only at beginner legal!

Excellent self-learning resource. Worth taking your time and really absorb and build on the exercises. Deceptively good book

Useful and user friendly. Teach French in a practical and interesting way

I am finding it very useful so far. I think you could teach yourself without help- find the book very useable

Good to start with, like other books from Teach Yourself series!
