Stockholm On A Budget

Synopsis

Explore Stockholm on the cheap with this super-detailed guidebook from Routes North – the first fully independent travel guide to Sweden. Our writers never accept free or discounted travel and all of the places featured in our Stockholm on a Budget guide have been visited in person, anonymously. Highlights include:

- Dozens of detailed hotel, hostel and restaurant reviews that you can trust
- Expert tips on getting to Stockholm and getting around in the cheapest way possible
- In-depth guides to the city's best attractions and lesser-known sights
- Insider info on saving cash in Stockholm – from cheap bars to hidden food halls
- Handy Google Maps locations for the places we recommend, plus practical information such as opening hours and prices to help you along the way
- Advice on whether it's worth buying the Stockholm Card
- No ads

The guide is divided up into simple geographical areas, making it a breeze to hop between Stockholm's central islands. About us Routes North was founded by the journalist Steve Vickers, who has worked on more than 15 guidebooks across Europe and Asia and has written about Sweden for the BBC, Rough Guides, the Washington Post and the Independent, among others.
