And no depression, osteoporosis, arthritis, or asthma? This observation the author made soon she arrived in Rwanda, Central Africa. To find the answer she asked her then husband, a physician. But he did not know either. Later, she moved to the USA and for many years this question was staying dormant in her brain database. Then one day, when she started experiencing her personal osteoporosis problem, she retrieved a segment of her life when she was working in Africa. And voila! The answer popped out.
