Customer Reviews

The content of this book is great. I wish I could rate it separately from the medium. The content is up to date and surprisingly also includes coverage of the latest 2016 election. However, the paper is printed for a three ring binder and the pages easily rip when flipping back and forth through the chapters, especially when taking an open book quiz. The paper is very thin, and printed material on the back of the page is noticeable on the opposite side. If the hardcover version had been available when I started my course, I would have purchased that instead of the loose leaf pages.

You need your own binder, and care must be taken to avoid tearing around the holes, but it was worth the price drop from the book version.

The textbook was loose leaf. I needed to buy a three ring binder for it. The textbook was brand new in plastic wrapping.

More overpriced garbage from the McGraw Hill scumbag mafia ring. There is nothing about this book that is worth $70+. It is made from cheap materials, and all content can be found online rather easily. The raping of the American college student continues.

A clear look t how our government works and how we effect change in the system. Lots of vignettes and visual aids to keep it very intersting reading.
