Customer Reviews

This is a very entertaining series about a family of bear shifters that moved from Belarus to Spokane Washington to get away from Navuka, a government agency whose purpose is to change shifters into weapons. One of the four sons had been captured and experimented on before being rescued by his family. They have lived in Spokane in the decade since, while Anton struggles with the pain of the changes Navuka made to him in the year they held him captive. But one by one, his three brothers meet and fall for their mates. And in book four, Anton finally stops running from his future, the girl he saved in the woods from a mountain lion when he first moved to Spokane. But Navuka hasn't stopped looking for a chance to get their secret weapon back, and they've finally found Anton's one weakness.

This family of bear Shifters is amazing! They stick together no matter what. Their mates are just as strong. The women each have their own individuals strength's. Even as they battle an insane woman scientist. One that needs killing sooner than later! Each character is unique & totally devoted in their fight to protect each other. A wonderful Series I truly enjoyed & highly recommend!

This series follows 4 brothers through their individual romantic and adventure challenges. I thoroughly enjoyed it and will be reading more by this author.

Wasn't sure I would like these but surprise surprise thoroughly enjoyed them. The story line was engrossing and you wanted to see how each was going end.

Loved this series of 4 brothers, bear shifters. Great love stories, lots of sex plus family time with all brothers, wives, parents and stepson.

A must read off all four books in order! Count not put it down. Loved Glory's carefree look on life! Pandora's fire and Ivy's stubbornness.
