No planning required! Need a day away to relax, refresh, renew? Just get in your car and go! Day Trips from Cincinnati is your guide to hundreds of exciting things to do, see, and discover right in your own backyard. Explore places you never even knew existed—many free of charge and most within a two-hour drive of Cincinnati. Do something sweet: Watch farmers pressing sugarcane and boiling sap into sorghum molasses and sugar candy, ready for snacking at nearby roadside stands at the Sorghum Mill in Gnaw Bone, Ind. Do something medieval: Become a knight of the realm, tour the Dungeon of Doom torture chamber, or enjoy a leg of mutton while watching a battle aboard a pirate ship at the Ohio Renaissance Festival in Harveysburg. Do something outdoorsy: Hike to the largest natural sandstone arch in Kentucky, the six-story high Natural Bridge in the Daniel Boone National Forest. With full trip-planning information, you can make the most of your time off and rediscover the simple pleasures of a day trip.

Having never been to the Cincinnati area before, this book has been very helpful. It provides trip routes that will give almost anyone a feel for destinations to explore; each with a different emphasis. The locations are all within a 2 hours drive of Cincinnati and offer suggestions for tours, lodging, historical sites and eating places that are unique to each area.

Ok

I grew up in Cincinnati and only moved away for a few years. I have raised 3 kids here. I wish I had known about this book a long time ago. There are places and things to see within a day's drive that I had NO idea about. Whether you live here or are considering visiting here, this book will be the perfect guide for short vacations and weekends.
