Customer Reviews

Michael Powell has penned more than 60 titles, and has quickly established a reputation for writing bestselling instructional guides, gift books and comedy titles for adults and children. He has always been interested in doing things that he shouldn't! Despite having several 'questionable' hobbies he lives a surprisingly quiet life in Somerset.

Was misdirected by the title of the book "Forbidden". Totally NOT impressed at all. Waste of money. Very general. Disappointed.

good read lots of good info if ever needed

Gift

This book was fairly funny. It's not jam-packed with information that is useful in your every day life (unless you want to start pick-pocketing or scamming ebay for a living). But, it does contain some funny articles and a few that give a little bit of an understanding of things you wouldn't otherwise investigate. As long as you aren't looking for this book to be incredibly useful to you, you will get a laugh from it. It has some funny ideas and a comical writing style. Worth it for the entertainment. Bought a second copy for my brother for Christmas.

This was a ridiculous book. Item one was "How to tell if your neighbor is a Zombie." Does he crave human flesh? Does his lips appear blue? Most of the articles were either like the first or along the lines of "Do you need to get the safe open? Hire a locksmith." "Do you want to start a riot? Get some people together and riot." This book was a waste of time.

do not buy it! the text of book is stupid, title is fake it doesn't reflect what is inside. The author on one page describes how to do heart surgery... it's fraud! give my money back!

Not forbidden not even knowledge, just short on information. Wasted my time and money.

I think this is aimed more towards humor and less towards a serious set of skills and knowledge to be learned.
