This is a good book to read for great simple info

Beautiful book. Very simple and easy to understand some of the more complex concepts from the bhagavad gita. Easy to read and follow because it is written as a conversation between a child and his grandmother. Loved it.

This is a wonderful book for kids as it is elaborated in a granny/grandson Q&A form. My kid loves to listen to me read it. I'm happy I purchased it. I think I must get copies for my nephews/nieces.

I think this is a very useful book for kids... and it is narrated in a conversational form... which is what I liked the most... off course things could be better... but this is a very good start.

Wonderful book, must have book. Useful all age group to face the real life, very light language with heavy stuff to explain.

I found the format to be very strange and I don't believe that the translation was true to the Gita.

includes many moral stories too. ideal for kids older than 5 or 6. or 4 - if the kid can read and understand complex stories.

A good beginners guide to Gita, not only for kids. My 8 yr old kid was totally hooked on to the book, and even started quoting from the book.
