“ Expert author Jessica Lee knows Jordan inside out; she has travelled extensively throughout the region researching this new guide”
“ Comprehensive coverage of the main attractions, plus dozens of activities and adventures that will help you get off the beaten track”
“ In-depth information about history, culture and politics as well as detailed listings”
“ Inspirational trip planning with itineraries, maps and a special adventure sports feature in full-color

Since deciding that growing up and getting a proper job was highly overrated at the tender age of 18, New Zealander Jessica Lee has travelled extensively in Asia, Africa and Latin America. A small obsession with humour and a large obsession with nomadic people led her to the Middle East in 2004 where she fell in love with the Arabic language and the incredible hospitality of the people. She has lived there full-time since 2007, working as a tour leader as well as a writer. When not on the overland trail between Cairo and Istanbul, she can usually be found among the fairy chimneys of central Anatolia where she is attempting to renovate a cave-house.
