You cannot miss with a Taste of Home title. The recipes have family appeal and use readily available ingredients. Love the variety - sweets to main dishes for breakfast, lunch, and dinner. Lots of photos, too.

Bought two of these for small Christmas gifts. Taste of Home makes the best cookbooks ever as far as I am concerned. I have many of them. I like that the recipes come from regular people and don't have a bunch of ingredients I have never heard of in them.

I love this book. I have already used about 10 or more of the recipes from book. I love cooking in a large pan. Saves on washing dishes and making a mess on my kitchen. I love it. Has great pictures on almost all the recipes. So I can see that the dish should look like.

Many family favorites. The best cook book I've bought in years. Durable. Easy recipes.

A Christmas gift for my sister, she likes it very much.

Item was as expected
