Scars Fade: Book Two Of The Self Inflicted Trilogy

Synopsis

Aurora's nightmare is over. Her cutting days are behind her. Erik is in jail awaiting trial, and she is safely at home with her son, Gavin. She becomes scared when Liam stops replying to her emails. Fearing the worst, she doesn't hear from him for over two weeks before she gets the phone call saying there was an accident. Liam is left with his body badly burned and paralyzed from his waist down. While in the hospital, Liam meets Gabe, another soldier who was injured overseas leaving him without a leg. Gabe becomes a good friend to both Rory and Liam and is responsible for the couple actually becoming a couple. After about a month in the hospital, Liam is able to return home and moves in with Rory. Together, they face Erik's trial and Rory's divorce. Liam helps with Gavin as much as he is able to, and tells Rory he wants to adopt the child. Join Rory and Liam as their relationship grows. Will Rory agree to the adoption? Will Liam get back on his feet? What happens to Erik?
