Summer Escape

Synopsis

Abbi was looking for a summer away from her demanding younger siblings. Any escape would do. Playing housekeeper for the spoiled son of one of her stepfather's business associates? Piece of cake. John West was country music royalty with a list of hits a mile long. His face was instantly recognizable around the globe. With the exception of his new housekeeper. A minor irritation. She was number six in as many months and if he ran her off like the others his parents were going to intercede. Considering the secret John was trying to keep that wasn't an option. They were about to discover one summer can change everything. Fans of Abbi Glines, Emily Evans, and Kelly Oram will love this funny and heart wrenching romance as fame meets normal when two worlds collide.

Customer Reviews

Kristin Coley makes magic with books full of relatable, multi-dimensional characters. This one was definitely a treat, although I found myself wishing for a lengthier ending and a scene involving the parental units, but I'm chalking that up to my demanding nature. I definitely recommend this one to just about any fan of contemporary romances. It's adorable and should be shared!

This was such a heart-tugging story; although I did find myself snickering in some parts. Anna was such a sweetheart of a girl with spunk to boot. She had so much baggage, but John saw the girl beneath it all.

I have read all of Kristin's books so far, and this one has to be my favorite. The banter between the two characters was refreshing. Abbi just wanted to get away from her life at home with younger siblings, and less than helpful mother and step father. She got more than she bargained for when she signed up to be a housekeeper for the summer for one of her stepfather's clients.

Loved it, great pace, sweet and funny. Lately I've been getting bored and switching from book to book without completing them, I read this one all the way through laughing all the way

I love how this story was real enough you could relate and yet left you with that perfect feeling of being able to stow away in someone else's drama and happy ending. A must read

It was an interesting story. I think some of the wording could have been different but in all I enjoyed it.

Well written. Abbi was comical and the story line kept my interest. Their love story is unconventional to say the least but sweet. I recommend this book to anyone who favors comedy and love.

This book was so good. I love the writing style of Kristin Coley this is the fourth book that I read and now I plan on reading them all. Keep them coming.
