Wayward Spirits: Witches Of Palmetto Point Book 2

Synopsis

The dead don't always rest in peace... Deputy Jason Tate has seen a lot of terrible things in his time, but nothing quite as strange as the case he just picked up. Is it a suicide gone wrong? An accident? Too many things aren't adding up, and some are downright inexplicable. When it gets weird, he calls in psychic/medium Charlie Payne. But weird doesn't begin to cover it when they encounter a dangerous spirit, hell bent on murder. Now they must work together to stop it from claiming another life, or risk becoming its next victims.

Customer Reviews

I lived in the low country for many years and this story was right up my alley. The storyline was engaging, the characters were believable, and the twist at the end....well, you have to read it!

I loved this book as much as I did the first. The relationship between the cousins is more sisterly and I love the way the story unfolded. It was well written, engaging and it left me wanting another book.

As with the first book, I read it in one day!!

First books I've read from this author! Can't tell you how much I've enjoyed these books. Real page turners. Love Charlie and all other characters! Only problem is September 30th can't get here quick enough! Hope book 4 is to follow soon!

I had a good time reading these books. Loved the characters of a family with different gifts. You feel like you are part of this family when you read the books. Can't wait for the next installment.

Once again I could not put it down. Can't wait for the next one. Please tell me there will be more than 3.

Tied the books together well, like that death has a tie in and the lady's are lovely. Moved faster than previous book

Good read holds your interest looking forward to the next one

Hurry! Can't wait for the next one!! Love the Cousins!
