Customer Reviews

I bought this for my friend, kind of as a joke, as we are both big Beatles fans. Well, that's just what it is - a joke! The art is horrendous and it is full of historical inaccuracies. This was obviously thrown together without much thought or respect for one of the greatest groups of musicians in modern history. To call it trash is insulting to trash. They call themselves "educational" publishing? Maybe to "educate" people on how NOT to compose a graphic biography.

This is a great book and a wonderful way for my students to learn some history in a fun way. The book presents the history of the Beatles through a comic book approach. The way it is presented is very inviting to students who may not have even had an interest in the group to begin with.

I didn't know the Liverpoolian Beatles spoke American, like "I guess..." and other ridiculous Americanizations of this purely British group...
